

SCHOOLS' CUP

Brunswick Street

Flinders Lane

South Melbourne Markets

Top 5 Places to Eat in Melbourne

Lygon Street

Hardware Lane

PLACES TO EAT

From World Famous Restaurants to Iconic Markets

Flinders Lane

Is home to some of Melbourne's most loved restaurants and cafes. Wander through the lane ways to find some hidden treasures.

Location: Most of the places to eat are located in the lane ways up around Flinders Station.

Hardware Lane

A great place to go for dinner. The atmosphere is always amazing. There are lots of restaurants to choose from.

Location: Hardware Lane, Melbourne City

Lygon Street

Lygon Street is the 'Little Italy' of Melbourne. There is a mix of restaurants, bars and traditional shops.

Location: Lygon Street, Carlton

---

Brunswick Street

Is well known for it's restaurants and shops. There are lots of place to explore on this street.

Location: Brunswick Street, Fitzroy

---

St Kilda

Fitzroy Street and Acland Street are well known for their restaurants and cafes.

Location: St Kilda

---

South Melbourne Markets

The dumplings from this Market are very well know. The lines can be long but they are well worth the wait. The many cafes and restaurants offer a variety of cuisines.

Location: 322 - 326 Coventry Street, South Melbourne

---

Queen Victoria Markets

The many cafes and restaurants offer a variety of cuisines. The markets also have a range of specialty merchandise.

Location: Comer of Elizabeth and Victoria Street, Melbourne

